CABARDES APPELLATION

Cabardès appellation is located at the foot of Montagne Noire where we find low fertility soils particularly suitable to wine growing and offering qualitative yields.

Its typical micro-climate, in transition between Ocean and Mediterranean, offers Cabardès the possibility to combine Bordeaux grapes (Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon and Cabernet Franc) to Mediterranean one (Syrah and Grenache).

Richness and harmony are coming from the blend of those grapes varieties, each bringing a nuance, different aromas but complementary.

From this duality born a happy marriage.
